Information about Your Request to Access Your Protected Health Information (PHI)

What does the right to access PHI mean?

You or your personal representative have the right to inspect, review or get a copy of the information kept by Providence Medicare Advantage Plans in the designated record set in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”). The designated record set is a group of records maintained by or for your plan, including certain records used to make decisions about you as a member. This set may include records pertaining to enrollment, claims, case management, medical management, or utilization management.

What do I need to understand to use this right?

- Your access to your records may have legal limits, such as in relation to health information not subject to the right to access information under HIPAA.
- You do not have a right to access PHI that is not part of the designated record set.
- You may not be entitled to receive all of your PHI. For example, you will not receive information such as psychotherapy notes or information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or for use in, a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding.
- Calls are recorded for quality and training purposes only. Providence Medicare Advantage Plans is not required to transcribe or produce a recorded call.
- Providence Medicare Advantage Plans will take reasonable efforts to produce the designated record in the format you have requested. However, if Providence Medicare Advantage Plans cannot readily produce the records in the format requested, a mutually agreeable alternative will be established.
- For copies of your medical records, call your provider's office.
- Appeals and Grievances: you may request a copy of the documentation collected/created by Providence Medicare Advantage Plans to respond to an appeal or grievance, free of charge by calling Customer Service at the toll free number listed on your Providence Medicare Advantage Plans HealthCare ID card.
- If you are requesting the access for a minor, federal and state laws may prohibit Providence Medicare Advantage Plans from acting upon any request for information relating to sensitive services unless written authorization is received from the minor member.

How much will this cost me?

- The hard copies you are requesting will cost a flat fee of $10.00.
- The electronic (email) copies you are requesting will be free.
- If you wish to pick up or view on site, it will be free.
- If you wish to have records on a CD, it will cost a flat fee of $6.50.
How will I know if my request is processed?

Providence Medicare Advantage Plans will respond to this request within 30 days. If we cannot respond within 30 days, we will send you a written notice describing why it will take longer and the date by which your request will be fulfilled. In certain cases, Providence Medicare Advantage Plans may deny your request. If we deny your request, we will tell you in writing and let you know if and how you can appeal our decision.
