Flexibility through the medical home model

Here for members, every step of the way

A patient-first network with options for every need

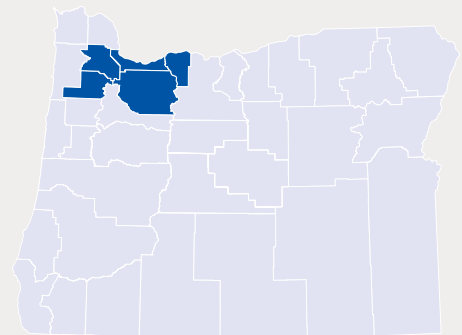

Connect supports members with a tailored medical home provider network that includes specialty and hospital care. This team works together to make sure they're all on the same page when it comes to the members health. Family members can also be covered as dependents. That means coverage for students attending college in another state, or significant others who live in another city.
